MORGUE SHIP WILL ARRIVE IN HALIFAX TUESDAY MORNING

Fog and Rough Weather Has Delayed Arrival of the Mackay Bennett.

NO PICTURE MEN TO BE ALLOWED ON PIER

The Charged by Photographers to Meet Ship as She Comes In.

Halifax, N.S., April 29.—With definite news from the captain of the Mackay Bennett steamer that owing to yesterday's fog and rough weather at sea, it will be impossible for her to arrive in port until nine o'clock tomorrow morning, another anxious day of waiting is added to the westerners' wait for the ship.

Many of the relatives and friends now are in the city that all the hotels are crowded with people from all parts of the continent, as they would be in the case of a disaster, with this exception that nearly all are men unaccompanied by their women folk. The restaurant and waiting rooms of the hotels are filled with men.

It was at first intended to exclude the press representatives from the landing stage. When the Mackay Bennett arrived, but in view of the fact that it is only through them that the waiting world will get authentic information regarding the arrival and identification of the bodies and of the experience of the morgue ship on the scene of the wreck, it has now been decided to admit a number of duly qualified newspapermen, and to these papers have been issued by the commander of the ship.

These newspapermen are also numerous, but only a few have been issued that not a single newspaperman is to be allowed inside the government shipyard. This, however, has not deterred the picture men, who have chartered a tug to go out and, from the Mackay-Bennett, and take pictures of her as she comes up the harbor to her moorings.

Although no definite information has been received, it now seems certain that the body of C.M. Hayes has not been transferred to the Mackay-Bennett, but is on the steamship Minia.

THE UNITED STATES "STOKES-SETTLER," CAPTAIN F. MCNEIL, whose efforts, now proceeding, with it is hoped, prevent the strike of some thousands of engineers on the pay road of fifty railroads between New York City and Chicago.

CITY OF DAMASCUS IS BURNED BY FIRE

Basar Quarters Wiped Out With Loss of Several Lives—Damage to Property Will Be Close to Ten Millions of Dollars—Fire Burned for Twenty-Four Hours.

Constantinople, April 28.—The great basar quarters in Damascus have been destroyed by fire. Several persons were killed and many injured and the damage is estimated at $10,000,000. The fire broke at midnight, Friday and lasted until late Saturday night.

One of the holy cities, capital of the vilayet of Syria, is noted among other things for its numerous basars. The basar quarters are long streets covered with woodenware and lined with shops and stalls, warehouses and offices. The great bazaar, one of the largest in the world, was destroyed in 1902. In the midst of the basar stands the house of Assad Pasha, one of the handsmen in Damascus. There are many miles of these basars, all of which are luxuriously furnished.

High Water and Wind Destroyed Telephone Lines—Details Are Hard to Get.

Okemah, Okla., April 29.—While there have been no additions to the list of 54 killed in the storm which swept through a section of Oklahoma Saturday, the number of injured is much larger than at first reported. The property loss is greater than indicated in yesterday's report. Wire communication has not been re-established to many of the gale-stricken points.

bridge over the Cimarron river, 30 miles east of Enid, was washed out. A call for aid has been sent out by the officials of Enid, who may there be thirty miles from the nearest town.

Following is a summary of the damage:

Okemah, Okla., April 29.—As detailed reports come in, the extent of the devastation and loss of life and property from Saturday's tornado in many places increases. On account of the high water and destruction of telephone lines, probably will add to the losses already reported.

It is now known that twenty lives were struck by the storm which swept across the Oklahoma through Texas and portions of Southwestern and Central Oklahoma; that two of them, Butler and Pook, were literally wiped out by the storm, and over a hundred injured accounted for. Other deaths are reported, but cannot be verified because of the heavy rain swirling the streets out of their homes in the wake of the tornado, preventing rescue parties from going to the scene.

Last night no word had been received from Oklahoma or Warren. Martha and Blair reported securely to have reached severely, while Kora, Bennett and Miller, Oklahoma, were discovered to have been badly damaged. All of Central Oklahoma is reported to have been hit, and it is several days before an accurate report of the loss of life and property damage is obtained.

THE WRECKERS WRECKED. North Bay, Ont., April 29.—The wrecking of an annual train occurred on the Canadian Pacific railway, Toronto, Wednesday morning, near Barry's Bend, resulting in serious injury to two employees. The first accident occurred late Saturday afternoon. A freight train was passing through a deep cut when it struck a trestle which had been struck by a freight train, dashing twenty freight cars, but without injuring the crew. PARIS POLICE EFFECT A VERY THRILLING CAPTURE Leader of Gang of Auto Bandits Which Has Terrorized the People of Paris and Vicinity, Is Driven to Cover, With Another Architect, in a Garage.

Paris, April 29.—Honoré, the leader of an organized gang of automobile bandits who have been terrorizing Paris and the surrounding districts for months, and Dubois, another architect who was slain in the most thrilling encounter in the annals of French crime.

A garage on Champs-Élysées, six miles south of Paris, in which the bandits had taken refuge, was blown up by dynamite after these two had kept at bay for hours a large party of the police force of Paris, a contingent of gendarmes, two companies of Republican guards and a company of soldiers.

Yen, thousands of spectators viewed the battle from points of vantage. Today's engagement equalled in dramatic interest the encounter in January, 1911, which has gone down in history as the battle of London, when desperadoes expected to be the murderers of police in London, were trapped in a house in the Whitechapel district and went down by their death battling against hundreds of London police and soldiers.

Honoré and Dubois, after wounding two policemen today, took refuge in the garage. They were trapped in the building which was at last surrounded. Reinforcements were despatched to all the police, composed of gendarmes, Republican guards and others.

A small detachment of soldiers was sent in placing dynamite against the structure and blowing out the front wall.

Killed With Bullets.
Honoré was captured alive. He was ridden with bullets and died on the way to the hospital. The great crowd that had gathered with hope of "death to honoré," all but the bandits from the soldiers' rifles, several of whom were injured.

Parisians, particularly automobile drivers, have been in a state of terror because of the reckless crimes of the automobile bandits which reached a climax in the murder of (Amateur) Sept. Jovin, of the detective department and the wounding of Chief Inspector Colmar by Honoré, on the morning of April 21. The government then ordered all the available police to hunt the assassins down.

At Châtou, superintendent of detectives, tracked Honoré to the hotel garage of Champs-Élysées. He and his men approached a bandit who proved to be Dubois, was preparing to mount a motorcycle. He answered the summons to surrender by opening fire while he was treated to the garage. At the same moment there was a hail of bullets from a window and two detectives fell, one with two bullets in his abdomen.

General Alarm Sent Out.
The detective retired and a general alarm was sent out. Police gendarmes and all police came. They were armed with muskets and revolvers and directed hundreds of bullets at the garage from which came a steady rain of lead in reply. M. Leprie, prefect of police, was immediately notified and heightened instructions to the police to do nothing until he arrived. "We will blow them up with dynamite," he said.

Meanwhile the Republican guards and the exterior company arrived while thousands of persons looked on from the sidewalks. They became so numerous that the soldiers were forced at length to drive them back, as they were interfering with the progress of the siege, which was being conducted against the building.

Hundreds of gendarmes armed with carbines then began to encircle the building to prevent the escape of the bandits. A cart was tipped up with thick mattresses and, the attacking party moved slowly toward the garage. Prior to that the column had been at bay for hours. Officers galloped back and forth giving orders to restrain the crowds which were now surging in the streets. At last the cart was backed toward the building and a great silence fell over the crowd.

Dynamite Against Building.
When the cart reached the wall it flared and exploded and a column of two huge sticks of dynamite against the building and ignited the fuse. The force collapsed out of Paris and the spectators waited. But no explosion followed. The operation was repeated twice, then came a terrific explosion and a column of smoke rose. All the while the bandits were more steadily but he was hit. As the front wall collapsed with a crash, police and Republicans rushed up. On the ground floor they found Dubois dead. They mounted a narrow stairway and observed a man streaming with blood, his left arm in a sling, crouched behind a mattress. His face showed ghastly white and blood was pouring from wounds on his face and chest. "Come you, curse you," he cried as he pulled the trigger of his empty revolver. He was reaching for poison in his belt, but before he succeeded he was overpowered and carried down and placed in an automobile.

It was then that the crowd changed into a wild mob, howling for the death of the bandit. The soldiers protected him with the butts of their carbines but many blows fell on Honoré before the auto started off, literally crushing the crowd of women, cleared a path and started for Paris. Honoré was unconscious and died on his way to Paris.

Lake Is Free of Ice.
Port Arthur, Ont., April 29.—The British Line steamer Empress arrived at late 10:30 from Duluth this forenoon and was welcomed to Port Arthur that there is no ice around the island. This shows that the lake is all open except Thunder Bay, which should be freed some time this week.

The freighter Pellet may try to go through the passage made in ice by the icebreaker tonight. This is regarded as dangerous, as in the case of the light move together their great weight would crush the freighter. The distance of the ice passage to the open lake is twenty miles.

President Secured 413 Delegates, While Roosevelt Got Only 207. During the Week—Taft Replies to Roosevelt's Charge—English Press Comment on Battle.

Washington, April 28.—So far as the results show in the actual election of delegates to the Republican national convention in Chicago during the past week, the Taft people made by far the best showing. The figures made by President Taft's managers show 413 delegates chosen for him to 207 chosen for Roosevelt.

Taft Denies Statement.
Washington, D.C., April 28.—President Taft, before leaving the White House tonight for his return to Massachusetts, issued a personal statement denying Colonel Roosevelt's allegations that the white secretary of war, had at a meeting, approved Mr. Roosevelt's decision not to immediately prosecute the International Harvester Company.

President Taft, in his statement, says he never heard the International Harvester Company discussed at any cabinet meeting, and that the record will show when the incident referred to by the Colonel occurred.

President Taft charges Mr. Roosevelt with trying to stir up class prejudice while his ambition is to make himself a political prisoner.

Again in Conference.
New York, April 28.—With U.S. Commissioner Charles E. Neill and Judge Martin A. Knapp, of the Federal Circuit Court, enforcing their orders with representatives of the city streetcar railroad, there was an expectation that within a week some definite plan would be formulated to bring about a settlement of the question of increased wages of the conductors.

WILL OPENING OF CANAL AFFECT CANADIAN LINES

American Manufacturer Declares That English Ship Owners Are Preparing to Capture European Traffic to the Pacific.

London, April 28.—George W. Sheldon, president of the National Harbort Co. of America, says there is a great danger to the shippers of American and Canadian transcontinental railroads through the opening of the Panama canal. European traffic to and from the Pacific and most places west of the Rockies is almost altogether through Canada, according to Mr. Sheldon, who asserts that as a result of inquiry much quiet preparation has been made by shipowners in London to capture this traffic but it is difficult to locate concretely what is being done.

"Our railroads and the interstate commerce commission had better see busy or else they will see a huge chunk of their traffic disappear with the opening of the canal," said he. The Canadian lines will probably cut of local traffic from which to derive dividends as the American trade has.

"The conditions," he continued, "emphasize the necessity of a national merchant marine and civil service consular organization. With those established and with the world's natural resources of the United States coupled with the brains of our people, no country on earth for the next several hundred years could hold out to second place in manufacture."

D. R. STEWART TO REMAIN.
D. R. Stewart will remain in his position as superintendent of the Johnston exhibition grounds. As a result of the pressure which the directors and his friends have been able to bring upon him, Mr. Stewart decided to place his application before the association on Saturday afternoon at the meeting of the board of directors his application was accepted unanimously. At the same time there was also a motion to appoint Stewart as assistant superintendent of the exhibition grounds.
